Eggera?"
"I did not," said Howell, quietly. "He had a conversation with me,"

was the easy reply.

Toh then you did have a talk with him? Did you not say then that you had no knowledge of the charge?"

"What I told Eggers if I am not mistaken, was, thet I had no knowledge of what he was going to testify to, but if he were going to testify that I had any interest in any of those houses he was an absolute liar."
"A Lit!" He Cries.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE

Pay Policies-That's All.

Summoning Hendricks to the witness stand to-day came as a great surprise. It was believed that the investigation of the State's Insurance Department would not be taken up until next week at the capital.

Looking old and unlike the man who a few months ago was holding a star chamber inquiry into the affairs of the Kquitable Life. Hendricks entered the Aldermanic chamber a few minutes at the command.

Hendricks's plaint was that his the beginning that it was the office of the department to be content with estiblishing the ability of companies to pay their policy obligation. To go into an investigation of the company for everything. He followed tradition, and secundary asked questions of no person. His curiosity as to the safary of R. A. McCurdy was never aroused; the commissions of R. H. McCurdy were never traced.

The Chancellor corrected her. "Not cows, he said. "but fine blooded stock." I know Guernseys and Jersoys."

She said thas five or six years aso Mr. Duke talked of making the estate into a sife of a club-house or of converting it into a public park. She seemed to wish to convey the impression that the great estate was anything but confortable. Mr. Parker asked her if the house at Duke Park was home-like, and her reply was:

"There wasn't enough closet room for my clothes, so Mr. Duke built one in the conservatory."

Rishard V. Lindabury then commenced cross-examination. He asked her whether she had seen the plans for the new house at Duke Park. "Oh. yes. "sile said. "before and after marriage."

She was asked whether Mr. Duke had not consulted her and used the plans and the said. "Oh. well, I was satisfied." I would close my stable in New York and she said she would go to a list said: "Oh. well, I was assisfied." I would close my stable in New York and she said she would not permit this."

ODELL IN RAGE AT GOV. HIGGINS AND ROOSEVEL

Practically Charges the State's Chief Executive With Being a Liar.

ACCUSES PRESIDENT.

Declares that Both of Them Are Deliberately Tryng to Wreck Party.

r., Chairman of the Republican State Committee, stood in the Republican Club to-day and practically charged Gov. Higgins with being a liar for saying that he was never for Odell's candidate for Speaker, Assemblyman Merrit, and President Roosevelt with being the wrecker of the Republican party in this State.

Not one of Odell's oldest friends has ever seen him as angry as he was today over the situation which the Speak-ership contest has developed in the Republican organization in this State. "I noticed that Gov. Higgins says that he never was for Merritt at any time,' said Mr. Odell. "That is absolutely untrue. Some time ago, just before election, I had a talk with Gov. Hig-gins. He asked me who I was for for the Speakership. Then he went to work and eliminated everybody but Assemblyman Merritt,

"My brother-in-law told me about the wonderful Cuticura remedies. I took his advice and got the Ointment, Soap, and Resolvent. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then applied the Ointment, and took Cuticura Resolvent as directed. In a short time my face began to get better, and when I had taken one bottle of Resolvent I could brush the scales off my face like a powder. When I had taken four bottles my face was as clear as ever.
